CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

	CONFIDENTIA	L		25X1 ﴿
COUNTRY	USSR/Austria (Soviet Zone)	REPORT
SUBJECT	1. Entries in Service Book 2. Shower, Barber, and Laund	DATE DISTR.	23	August 1954
. A	of 23rd AAA Division and Station	at ReceptionNO. OF PAGES	4
DATE OF INFO.		REQUIREMENT NO.	RD
PLACE ACQUIRED		REFERENCES		25X1
		This is UNEVALUATED Infor	mation
	THE APPRAISAL OF C	N THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. SEE REVERSE)		25X1
	,
				,
				195
				5 ° 5
				je je
				() () () () () () () () () ()
	.

ARMY review completed.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

CONFIDENTIAL

25X

	ĵ	CONFIDENTIAL DEFECTOR RECEPTION CENTER	REPORT
OUNTRY	USSR/Austri	a (Soriet Zone)	DATE DISTR. C. Au	La 1954
UBJECT	1. Entries	in Service Book	DATE DISTR. 6
	2. Shower, of 23rd	Barber, and Laundry Facilit	NO. OF PAGES 3	,
ATE OF IN	IFORMATION		REFERENCES:
ACE ACC	QUIRED			25X1
				-
,		THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	V	25X1.
· A1	l clothing a	nd equipment dequed
s.e	rvice book.	nd equipment issued Records of the issuance	were entered in to	the 2
s.e	rvice book.	nd equipment issued - Records of the issuance pons were entered on separat		the 2
in in	rvice book. dividual wea	 Records of the issuance pons were entered on separat 	of gas masks and e pages.	the 2
in in	rvice book. dividual wea	" Records of the designed	of gas masks and e pages.	the
in	rvice book. dividual wea	 Records of the issuance pons were entered on separat 	of gas masks and e pages.
Al	rvice book. dividual wea	Pons were entered on separate izes were entered in the ser	of gas masks and e pages.

CONFIDENTIAL

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

Instructed by the voyenkomst to have heircuts. This was done by the inductees at their own expense. There were no barber facilities at Zhitomir Recruits gave each other haircuts as they were needed. At the basic training center in Zhitomir, showers were taken in a portion of one building. There were sufficient shower heads to accommodate one platoon at a time. Showers were taken every 10 days in platoon formation. There were no military laundry facilities at Zhitomir, recruits either sent their soiled clothes; to Zhitomir to be cleaned by civilians or did them themselves. The men took baths every 10 days in one of the billets of the 35th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Kembers of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div.; used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 sohillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soan which was issued by the first secretary as sellowish brown soan which was issued by the first secretary as sellowish		CONFIDEN			:
Before departing for the reception center, all recruits were instructed by the voyenkomat to have haircuts. This was done by the inductees at their own expense. There were no barber fabilities at Zhitomir Recruits gave each other haircuts as they were needed. At the basic training center in Zhitomir, showers were taken in a portion of one building. There were sufficient shower heads to accommodate one platoon at a time. Showers were taken every 10 days in platoon formation. There were no military laundry facilities at Zhitomir, recruits either sent their soiled clothes to Zhitomir to be cleaned by civilians or did them themselves. The men billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Nembers of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt., every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves Boiled uniforms were washed above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant The first sergeant of the carried only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians.	eren jane remai	a december of the second of the Trees	** * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *
Instructed by the voyenkomat to have haircuts. This was done by the inductees at their own expense. There were no barber facilities at Zhitomir Recruits gave each other haircuts as they were needed. At the basic training center in Zhitomir, showers were taken in a portion of one building. There were sufficient shower heads to accommodate one plation at a time. Showers were taken every 10 days in platoon formation. There were no military laundry facilities at Zhitomir, recruits either sent their soiled clothes to Zhitomir to be cleaned by civilians or did them themselves. The men took baths every 10 days in one of the billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Nembers of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div.; used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves Any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 solidlings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the country of the country of the country of the plantity or how often the	Barber and showe	er facilities at re	ception statio	on.
Recruits gave each other haircuts as they were needed. At the basic training center in Zhitomir, showers were taken in a portion of one building. There were sufficient shower heads to accommodate one platoon at a time. Showers were taken every lo days in platoon formation. There were no military laundry facilities at Zhitomir, recruits either sent their soiled clothes; to Zhitomir to be cleaned by civilians or did them themselves. The men took baths every lo days in one of the billets of the 35th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Nembers of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every lo days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the province of the quantity or how often the	by the inductees	ie voyenkomát to há	ve haircuts.	This was done	2
There were no military laundry facilities at Zhitomir, recruits either sent their soiled clothes; to Zhitomir to be cleaned by civilians or did them themselves. The men took baths every 10 days in one of the billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Members of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div.; used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The soiled underwear with them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves afew days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	facilities at Zi	iltomir			:
The men billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Members of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The solied underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves afew days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the part of the sergeant the part of the sergeant the quantity or how often the	neads to accommo	date one platoon a	t a time. She	rs were taken sient shower owers were	2
The men billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div. Members of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div.; used the showers at the same time. (Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there exers no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	either sent thei	r soiled clothes	ilities at Zh to Zhitomir to	itomir, recruits be cleaned by billets of the 36th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div., where shower facilities were available. The billets were in the caserne area of the 23rd AAA Div.; wheners of the 64th AAA Regt., 23rd AAA Div.; used the showers at the same time. [Khozaystvennaya Chast], 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the					2
Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 sohillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the guantity or how often the	billets of the 3 facilities were	oth AAA Regt., 23rd	d AAA Div., wl llets were in	nere shower
Khozaystvennaya Chast), 36th AAA Regt., were on duty at the shower point. The first sergeant of section picked up clean underwear and sheets at the 64th AAA Regt. every 10 days and issued them to the EM. The EM then carried the clean underwear with them to the shower point. The soiled underwear and sheets were turned in to the 64th AAA Regt. by the first sergeant of the section. Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	or the 23rd AAA	Div. Members of the	he 64th AAA Ra	egt., 23rd AAA	. 2
Soiled uniforms were washed by the EM themselves there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	(Khozaystvennaya shower point.	Chast), 36th AAA 1	members of	the Svo. Sec.
there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	wear and sheets them to the EM. them to the show were turned in t	at the 64th AAA Reg	gt. every 10 d	lays and issued any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the			*
there were no laundry facilities for any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the
any clothing items, except as stated above. Furthermore, each man had only two uniforms and could not be without one for a few days. Since the EM received only 40 schillings pay each month, they could not afford to have their laundry done by Austrian civilians. The uniforms were washed with a yellowish brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	Soiled uniforms	were washed by the	EM themselves	Pacilities for	25X
brown soap which was issued by the first sergeant the quantity or how often the	man had only two few days. Since month, they coul Austrian civilia	ms, except as state uniforms and could the EM received or d not afford to hav ns. The uniforms w	ed above. Fur I not be withoutly 40 schilli we their laund were washed wi	thermore, each out one for a ngs pay each lry done by th a vellowish
		th	e quantity or	how often the	. 2

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL - 3 -	25X1
of uniforms in the regiments and subunits of the 23rd ARA Div. the EM washed their own uniforms, while the officers paid to have their uniforms cleaned by	25X1
Austrian civilians.
There were no barber facilities in unit in Austria, and the EM gave each other haircuts as they were needed. There were no strict requirements with respect to haircuts as	25X1
far as unit was concerned	25X1
all the soldiers	*
working in the Rear Services, 23rd AAA Div., such as the 64th AAA Regt. and 36th AAA Regt. Clothing and Equipment Supply (Obozno-veschevogo snabzheniya) and Ration and Forage Supply (Prodovolstvenno-furazhnogo snabzheniya), and the 36th AAA Regt. shower point, wore black artillery shoulder boards with red piping. they also wore metallic crossed artillery insignia on the shoulder boards.	25X1
	25X1

CONFIDENTIAL